Dwyer & Collora Names Bill Lovett Partner

BOSTON (January 16, 2010) – Bill Lovett (bio) has been promoted to partner by the Boston law firm Dwyer & Collora, LLP. Bill represents clients in all of the firm's practice areas including complex civil litigation and white-collar criminal defense. He has extensive experience representing clients in financial matters including civil and criminal tax matters, accounting fraud, securities infractions, and civil asset forfeiture. Mr. Lovett was recognized as a rising star in business litigation by Massachusetts Super Lawyers in 2009 and by Massachusetts Lawyers Weekly as an Up & Coming Lawyer in 2008.

Bill joined Dwyer & Collora, LLP in 2006 after serving over six years as a federal prosecutor at the U.S. Department of Justice. While at the Department of Justice, he served as a Special Assistant United States Attorney in the Eastern District of Virginia and was recognized with the Outstanding Attorney Award in 2002, 2003 and 2005.

Mr. Lovett is the co-founder of Boston's Lawyers Have Heart, an annual 5K road race and summer celebration sponsored by the legal community to benefit the American Heart Association. Bill is a cum laude graduate of Boston College and Boston College Law School. Prior to law school Bill was an auditor manager for The Boston Company/Mellon Bank, N.A. where he supervised and executed audits of the company's financial operations.

Bill is admitted to practice in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and is a member of the bars of the Supreme Court of the United States, United States Courts of Appeals for the First and Fourth Circuits and the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts. Bill is also a member of Boston Bar Association, Criminal Law and Litigation Sections, the American Bar Association, Criminal Justice Section and the BC Law and BC High Alumni Associations.

Dwyer & Collora, LLP (www.dwyercollora.com) is a litigation firm located in downtown Boston. The firm represents individual and corporate clients in business disputes, white collar criminal cases, employment law and health care matters.
